Watson Now Ready to Start and Impatient to Go.

Washington, July 19.—(Special.)—This dispatch was received early this morning:

Playa Del Este, July 18.—The Adjutant General's roster of prisoners has been handed in this afternoon by Gen. Toral. The total is 22,789. (Signed) SHAFTER.

Secretary Alger to-day told the newspaper men that the Porto Rican expedition had started from various points, or would later in the day. He said Gen. Miles had been ordered to leave on the Yale from Santiago. He said all of the 22,789 Spanish prisoners mentioned by Gen. Shafter in his report to-day were in the city of Santiago and did not include Spanish troops at other places in the surrendered zone, numbering between 10,000 and 12,000.

Watson Sails This Week.

Probably on Friday.

Washington, July 19.—(Special.)—Commodore Watson's formidable squadron of battleships and protected auxiliary cruisers will leave on Friday or Saturday for Spain. Additional battleships have been added to the fleet. These ships are now at Guantanamo preparing for the voyage.

COMMODORE JOHN WATSON.

This gallant officer succeeded Admiral Sampson as chief commander of the Cuban blockading squadron when that officer was sent out at random to sink the Spanish fleet. Commodore Watson was Farragut's flag lieutenant at 18 and was in all of Farragut's fights from the capture of New Orleans to Mobile bay. He is a native of Kentucky and has reached the age of 44 years.

age and work before them, and repairs are being effected by the engineer repair ship Vulcan.

The authorities hope that as finally made up by Commodore Watson's fleet will consist of these vessels: Battleships Oregon, Massachusetts, Indiana, Iowa and Texas, the protected cruisers Newark and New Orleans, and the auxiliary cruisers Dixie, Yankee and Yosemite.

4,000 at Guantanamo Bay.

Washington, July 19.—(Special.)—Col. Becker, in charge of the transportation of troops for the War Department, went to New York to-day to open bids to-morrow for the transportation of Toral's troops to Spain.

The army surgeons have been ordered to secure the discharge of all volunteers not fitted for military service. Information has been received that many men not physically qualified have entered the service.

Damage Suits on Trial.

Two damage cases were put on trial to-day in County Judge Cassler's Court. One is by Lillie Lacy vs. J. J. Stuart for $200 for assault and battery, and the other is by Wm. Lacy vs. J. J. Stuart for breach of contract, for the same amount.

The plaintiffs are colored and Mr. Stuart, the defendant in both cases, is a prominent farmer of Casky. The cases will not be concluded to-day.

Prince of Wales Hurt.

London, July 19.—The Prince of Wales was injured yesterday by missing his footing and falling upon the staircase of the country seat of Baron de Rothschild, Waddeston Manor, Aylesbury, where he is a guest. He struck his knee cap against the edge of the chair and received a painful fracture.

Due to Accidental Causes.

Pompton, N. J., July 19.—(Special.)—The coroner's inquest at the powder mill explosion has decided that the explosion, that killed 11 men, was due to accidental causes.

The Wickliffe Yeoman says: Jack Rich was adjudged a lunatic by a jury at the court house here last Saturday, and was taken to the Hopkinsville asylum by Hal Gee and John Rich.

EIGHT KILLED.

And Many Others Injured By a Chinaman's Desperate Deed.

Fired into a Can of Powder When
About to Be Arrested For Murder.

San Francisco, July 19.—(Special.)—Yesterday a Chinese workman at the Melrose Fuse Works, near Oakland, murdered a Chinese merchant and took refuge in the powder magazine. This morning when about to be captured the Chinaman fired a pistol into a can of powder. The explosion demolished the building, killing Constable Keach, Deputy White, Deputy Woodson and four others. Several other men injured will die. Mrs. Wood near by died of the shock. Mrs. Hall is not expected to live. Every building within a radius of 300 yards was razed. Fire completed the destruction and ten box cars adjacent were also burned.

GOES TO AID HIS BROTHER.

Taylor, Who Killed Sandys in St.
Louis, Has Much Sympathy.

Morganfield, Ky., July 19.—(Special.)—Sam Taylor, who shot and killed Ben Sandys in St. Louis Saturday for kidnaping his beautiful little girl, is a native of Union county, and for many years was a prominent merchant of Boxville.

His parents are now living at Uniontown. All indications at this time point to a justifiable killing. It is hoped by the legion of friends of Mr. Taylor in this county that such is the case. His brother, J. G. Taylor, of this city, left for St. Louis this morning.

TYPHOID IN CAMP.

Five Deaths at Camp Alger and Situation Serious.

Washington, July 19.—The prevalence of typhoid fever is the chief subject now engaging the attention of Camp Alger. There were fifty-one cases at the Fort Myer Hospital. Five deaths have been recorded within the last two days. Col. Girard the chief surgeon, said to-day that the fault lay principally with the men. If they would observe the camp rules and drink nothing but boiled and artesian well water there would not be much typhoid.

A Carlist Uprising.

London, July 19.—(Special.)—Dispatches from Madrid say it is rumored there that the Carlists have risen at Baco De Valdeorras and the local authorities are unable to cope with them.

A Decline in Gasoline.

Porto Rican Invasion Sails To-day.

Some Troops Now En-Route and Others Ready to Go.

Washington, July 19.—(Special.)—It was stated this morning that by the end of the week a part of the invading army will reach Porto Rico. Sampson will have charge of the naval operations. The plan of attack is understood to be first of all a general blockade of the entire island.

Miles did not leave Siboney yesterday, as he did not receive orders. He will leave as soon as possible, probably to-day.

The Irene Shot At— Refused to Stop When Ordered.

London, July 19.—(Special.)—A dispatch to the Daily Mail from Hong Kong states, on the authority of Mr. Wildman, the American consul, that as the German warship Irene was passing Mariveles the other day the United States dispatch boat Hugh McCulloch was sent by Admiral Dewey to ask her to stop. The Irene refused to comply with the request; whereupon a shell was fired at her and a boat was sent to watch her.

Admiral Diederichs protested against this action and insisted that the German ships were entitled to enter the harbor without being searched. Admiral Dewey, however, declined to recognize such a right. It is reported that Admiral Diederichs asked Capt. Chichester of the British warship Immortalite what he would do if the Germans interfered with an American bombardment of Manila. Capt. Chichester replied that only Admiral Dewey and himself knew what action he would take.

The Antonio Lopez Destroyed.

Spain Already Looking For Watson.

Madrid, July 15.—(Special.)—The Marine commandant at San Juan, Porto Rico, has cabled Correa, Minister of War, that an American cruiser fired upon and burned the Spanish trans-Atlantic line steamer, Antonio Lopez.

The impartial attacks President McKinley for refusing concessions to Gen. Toral. Says he is more rapacious than his own generals.

The belief is very general that Watson sailed some days ago and is liable to appear anywhere at any time.

And They Want it Quick.

Madrid, July 19.—(Special.)—The President of the Madrid chamber commerce has received 25 declarations in favor of peace from the chambers of commerce representing the coast district. None of the inland cities declare either way.

Hot After Manzanillo.

Several Gunboats Stranded.

London, July 19.—(Special.)—A special dispatch from Havana, dated Monday, says:

“Seven American warships heavily bombarded Manzanillo this morning. Three steamers of the Mexico Line were set on fire. Several gunboats that were in the harbor issued forth to defend the town, but were stranded. The result of the bombardment is not yet known here.”

New York, July 19.—(Special.)—A Journal dispatch from Playa del Este says:

All of the American transport ships which have been at Aquadores, Baiquiri and elsewhere along the coast passed Morro Castle and entered the harbor at Santiago this afternoon.

Twenty of them were unable to pass the wreck of the Merrimac and it may be necessary to blow up the Merrimac to let them out after loading.

Georgetown had a hanging yesterday. Clarence Vinegar, a colored wife murderer, was executed at sunrise. He died game.

It has been decided to retain Gen. Shafter a brigade at Santiago indefinitely, although Gen. Shafter himself will return home as soon as he can be relieved.

Americans at Tampa will present Admiral Cervera with a home on Tampa Bay, if he will accept it, in recognition of his chivalrous treatment of Hobson and his men.

Sylvester Seovel, the New York Journal's correspondent, is said to have insulted Gen. Shafter at a banquet at Santiago where wine flowed pretty freely. He has been placed under arrest.

M. Zola, the great French novelist, has had his second trial for his conduct in the Dreyfus matter, and has been sentenced to pay 3,000 francs fine and to be imprisoned a year. M. Perreux received the same sentence.

The great Confederate re-union in Atlanta this week will attract thousands of the old veterans to that city. An excursion train from Louisville will take five hundred and the number will be largely augmented by towns along the route.

The National Editorial Association will meet in Denver, Colorado, the first week in September and will make a tour of the State that will be one of the most delightful trips the association has ever taken. The editors are already planning to make a trip to Paris in 1900.

The American troops are now busy pitching their tents on the hill-sides about Santiago and the Spaniards troops are mingling and hobnobbing with them in a perfectly free and easy manner. The Cubans are kept in the rear. It does not take soldiers of opposing armies long to get on good terms after they quit shooting at each other.

The Hopkinsville soldiers at Chickamauga will be sent to Porto Rico and the movement towards invasion has already begun. Gen. Miles has left Cuba with four batteries and a few seasoned troops and the soldiers at Charleston and Tampa are being loaded on transports. The entire army of 40,000 will be on the way within four days.

Gen. Shafter made a good trade when he agreed to send back to Spain the 22,000 Spanish prisoners surrendered at Santiago. The problem of caring for such a number of fever-ridden foreigners, naked and half starved, would be a more serious one than taking the city of Santiago. In sending them home the best possible disposition was made of them.

The surrendered territory in Cuba is about five times as large as Christian county and the troops to be surrendered number about 22,000. Of these only 7,000 were in Santiago and 10,000 are at interior towns under Gen. Luque and other leaders. The remainder are at Guantanamo and other coast towns. Some of these surrendered troops have not yet learned that they are prisoners of war and are having all most daily skirmishes with the Cubans. Gen. Toral has sent men to notify them that they must lay down their arms.

Commodore Schley entered the Santiago harbor on a steam launch Monday morning and inspected the defenses. Subsequently the mines were exploded and further examinations made and several small vessels found in the harbor surrendered. One of these, the gunboat Alvarez, was at once put into use with the stars and stripes floating where the Spanish flag had been. The wreck of the Mercedes inside and only one gun remained on it. Morro Canel that was "utterly demolished" so often, was found practically uninjured.

Gen. John S. Williams, ex-United States Senator and a distinguished soldier in both the Mexican and civil wars, died at his home near Mt. Sterling Sunday morning after a lingering illness. Gen. Williams lacked but a few days of being eighty years of age. Gen. Williams was born July 19, 1818, near Mt. Sterling. After graduating from college he took up the law at Paris, Ky., and practiced at the bar until his marriage to Miss Mary Harrison, when he removed to Clark county and engaged in farming. At the outbreak of the Mexican war he raised the Clark Independent Rifles, of which he was Captain and Roger Hanson, Lieutenant. On the bloody field of battle he won the name of Cerro Gordo, the place where it was fought. He rose to the rank of Colonel. His title of General was conferred in the Confederate service. Gen. Williams served one term in the United States Senate. For the succession he was defeated in a memorable contest with Hon. J. C. S. Blackburn. In 1871 he married Mrs. Henriette Hamilton, nee Lindsey. One daughter, the issue of the first marriage, survives. She is the wife of C. J. H. Holloway, of Clark county. His remains were buried at Winchester, Ky.

Gen. Duffield, who has yellow fever, is getting better and is expected to recover.

600 Cases of Fever.

Santiago, July 19.—(Special).—New cases of yellow fever continue to appear daily, and fully 600 are now under treatment, but the disease is of a very mild form, and the physicians say it is now well in hand. Only five deaths have occurred up to to-night, the low mortality being remarkable and most encouraging to Drs. Guitierrez and the other fever experts, who had grave fears when the disease first appeared that the death rate would be very heavy.

Fair Rough Riders.

Perry, K. T., July 19.—Miss Lizie Delisderner, a Western Oklahoma young lady, who plays the role of cowboy, has organized a company of 40 girls into a company of Rough Riders, who, she says, can use a gun on foot or horseback as well as Roosevelt's regiment, and Miss Delisderner will offer her company to President McKinley.

Shirt Sleeves Permissible.

Toledo, O., July 19.—The Columbus, Hocking Valley and Toledo Railroad Company has issued a new order, countermanding a former rule which did not allow male passengers to occupy, with their coats off, seats in the ladies' coaches. Now the gentlemen passengers are permitted to sit in their shirt sleeves if they want to, and nobody dare say "scat."

Mrs. Smythe, of Nashville, has arrived on a visit to her daughter, Mrs. J. B. Galbreath.

PRISONERS KILLED.

Massacre of Unarmed Spaniards

That Ought to Be Investigated.

Restless from Being Packed Like Sardines in a Box, They Were Shot Down for Moving.

The following dispatch from Portsmouth, N. H., sent out July 15, gives the horrible details of the massacre of Spanish prisoners in mid-ocean, by Massachusetts soldiers.

With 1,008 Spanish prisoners on board, many of whom are seriously sick, the auxiliary cruiser Harvard came into Portsmouth Harbor this morning at 6:30.

Six of the prisoners from Cervera's fleet paid the penalty of disobedience of orders on the night of July 4, when they fell dead on the ship's deck after a volley sent among them by the boys of the Ninth Massachusetts, who were on guard.

Twelve others were wounded, all of them seriously, and 10 of these were sent on board the hospital ship Solace before the Harvard left Sibley.

Four died on the voyage to this port, and a fifth succumbed in the first hour after the ships arrival.

The Harvard was crowded to suffocation with henchmen of human freight. In fact, it was necessary to carry a "deck load."

On the promenade deck at the stern of the ship were massed nearly 300 prisoners. The had been there ever since July 4, and they looked like sheep in a corral, so thickly did they fill the space at the high board partitions that marked the limit of their prison pen.

About 9 o'clock on the night of July 4 these 300 upper-deckers, became restless and began moving about. Part of the 50 men from the Ninth Massachusetts, who had been left the Harvard when their regiment landed to look after some stores, were on guard that night, as the marine force on the ship was not large and needed all the rest they could get in view of the duties before them.

There were then no partitions to keep the prisoners within the space allotted to them. Whether they were trying to take advantage of this fact by diverting the attention of the guard or not could not be told from their actions, which seemed to indicate that they wanted to get outside the limit of space set for them.

On the hurricane deck, above this space, is the ready ammunition house, where is kept a small supply of fixed ammunition for the guns on the quarters. There was a movement on part of some of the prisoners toward the rail as if they were about to climb toward the upper deck.

The men of the Ninth on guard shouted to them to stop. The prisoners may not have understood the order, but they could not have misunderstood the tone. For all they did not stop. They moved toward the rail, and also toward the guard.

There was no more parleying. The order to fire was given, and instantly a volley came from the rifles of the soldiers.

Eighteen of their number lay on the deck, which was running with blood, where they fell.

Six of them did not move. They were killed instantly. The other 12 had gaping wounds in different parts of the bodies, and the blood gushed from these in rivulets that dyed the bare feet of the living and saturated the clothing of the dead.

There were a few minutes of excitement, many more of hard work for the surgeon and his assistants, and in a short time six pieces of canvas were being sewed up on the deck of the Harvard, with a dead Spaniard and a grate bar in each. The blue waters of Sibley soon closed over the six dead men, and the incident was closed.

Jim Richardson Sick.

Frankfort, Ky., July 19.—(Special).—Friends here have received word that Prison Commissioner Richardson is ill at his home in Glasgow. The Commissioners were expected to meet here on Friday, but it is not known when they will meet owing to Richardson's illness.

RELIABILITY

is a quality some newspapers have lost sight of in these days of "yellow" journalism. They care little for truth and a great deal for temporary sensation.

It is not so with THE CHICAGO RECORD.

The success of THE RECORD rests upon its reliability.

It prints the news—all the news—and tells the truth about it.

It is the only American newspaper outside New York city that has its own exclusive dispatch boat service and its own staff correspondents and artists at the front in both hemispheres.

It is the best illustrated daily newspaper in the world.

Its war news service is unsurpassed by the best.

Says the Urbana (Ill.) Daily Courier:

"We read the war news in the other papers, then we turn to THE CHICAGO RECORD to see how much of it is true."

FINEST IN SOUTH.

Nashville's New Louisville & Nashville Station.

Bids Opened Yesterday For Building the Magnificent Structure.

Bids were opened yesterday at Nashville for the new depot of the Louisville & Nashville railroad at that place. Contracts for the construction will be let. When completed the station will be the handsomest in the South. Without the real estate, it will be very valuable. The cost will be $1,000,000. The station will be located on South Walnut street and New Kayne avenue, south of Broad street. The Louisville & Nashville Terminal Company has been working on the plans for some time. The plans include a depot building and baggage room, with a train shed of 200 feet clear space, a total width of 240 feet and a length of 500 feet. It will have three through tracks and six stub end tracks. The station will be used by the L. & N. and the Nashville, Chattanooga & St. Louis railroad.

The building will be most attractive. The main entrance will front on a viaduct, which will include Broad street. In the center over the entrance will rise a tower, 220 feet high. The height of the building to the eaves will be sixty feet nine inches. Three vestibules will lead to the general waiting room, which will be 100 feet deep and 50 feet wide. The ladies waiting room will be 44 by 39 feet. All necessary offices will be provided. The plans are elaborate. A year or more will be required for the construction. It has not yet been decided whether the edifice will be built of solid stone or brick with stone trimmings. Plans for both have been received. The size of the depot is being graded.

James Isom, son of Mr. Zech Isom of Mercer county, was one of the brave soldier boys who fell at Santiago. His father will endeavor to have the remains brought home for burial.

John Lush, a distiller, went on a spree at Cloverport and landed in the Police Court. The name is very appropriate to his business and to the occasion.

BLUCHER'S LOVE OF GAMBLING

How the King Cured Him of the Expensive Habit.

"In these war times anecdotes of great soldiers are being revived, and many of these stories throw a sidelight on the private lives of men famous in the world's history," remarked a German-American citizen of St. Louis, who was once a sergeant in the German army.

"Old Uncle Blucher, or Blucher, as the Germans called him, who saved the day at Waterloo and brought about the defeat of the great Napoleon, was a 'character,' and he was an inveterate gambler, according to the stories handed down in the German army," said Mr. Meyer. "Blucher was a curious old fellow, according to the army tradition. Did you never hear the story of what he said about the officer accused of drinking? Well, one fine day the colonel of a regiment went to Blucher to complain about another colonel, who, he said, was always drunk. The great general opened a drawer and produced a notebook, from which he read about the gallant conduct of the accused in certain desperate engagements. Closing the book with a bang and throwing it on the table, he looked the accuser steadily in the face and said: 'I wish to God, sir, that you would get drunk, too.'"

"Yes, I know a somewhat similar story is told of President Lincoln in reference to Gen. Grant," continued Mr. Meyer, after being interrupted, "but the German books, published more than half a century ago, tell that story about old man Blucher."

"But Gen. Blucher's own habits gave his friends much concern. Blucher, like many prominent men of his time, was a reckless gambler. The king, who was much attached to him, had paid his debts over and over again, it was true. The old marshal had gone through his wife's property as well as his own, and his pay was always spent in advance. Once he was 'dead broke' and had to go to the king. 'I got you out of this scrape will you promise me not to gamble again?' said the king. Blucher gave the promise and added, as if he gave him 100,000 thalers: 'I will go straight home to my wife and settle half of this money upon her so that I shall not be able to touch it, and I will then pay up all my debts and never touch a card any more.'"

Blucher went home, gave 50,000 to his wife, and after dinner set forth to pay his debts. At midnight Blucher's wife was roused from her slumbers by one of her husband's staff officers, who had been sent for 25,000 thalers. 'Dear good man,' said the lady, 'I know he would want before morning, so I have put up just that sum in a package for him. Here it is, and tell him to be careful about the cold air coming home, and to muffle up well.'"

"The officer departed, only to return after a few hours for the rest of the money, with the same success. Blucher went home to breakfast in the morning, having lost every penny of the king's gift at play."

"Again Blucher went to the king, told him the whole story, and listened attentively to all the reproaches until his majesty said: 'Uncle—for he always called Blucher 'uncle'—'I thought you gave me your sacred word of honor that you would not play cards for money again.' 'No, sir,' answered Blucher, 'I did not give my sacred word of honor.' 'Will you give it to me now?' asked the king. 'Ach! Mein Gott! That is a hard thing to ask from Blucher,' replied the hero of Waterloo. But after some grumbling the sacred promise was given, and old 'Vorwärts' stopped gambling."—St. Louis Globe Democrat.

A PRINCE'S DISOBEDIENCE.

Son of the Late Russian Emperor Who Refused to Obey an Order.

The third son of the Russian emperor, while in the naval service, was holding the rank of midshipman when the flagship on which he was serving was wrecked on the coast of Denmark. The admiral ordered the lifeboats to be lowered, and directed Michael to take charge of the first one. The royal midshipman declined to obey.

"I am your commanding officer, and I order you into the boat," cried the admiral.

"I cannot obey you," returned the prince. "It would not become the son of the emperor to be first to leave the ship. I shall remain with you till the last."

"But I shall put you under arrest for disobedience, as soon as circumstances will allow me."

"I mean no disobedience, but I cannot obey," persisted Michael.

Then, as soon as temporary shelter was obtained, the rigid discipline of naval life was resumed, and the young prince was placed under arrest for disobedience to orders. The Russian minister at Copenhagen, being at once informed of the facts, telegraphed them to the emperor and received this reply:

"I approve the act of the admiral for placing the midshipman under arrest for disobeying orders, and I bless and kiss my son for disobeying them."

RULES LAID DOWN.

The Superintendent Prepares 13 Rules for the Teachers.

The Institute Must be Attended by All Teachers With Certificates.

Miss McDaniel, County Superintendent, makes the following announcement concerning the approaching meeting of the Teachers' Institute:

1. Teachers to whom work is assigned will be depended upon for a well prepared paper or discussion of theme assigned.
2. The fee will be $1.25.
3. Teachers are urged to bring trustees, patrons, and pupils with them.
4. Teachers are requested to arrange to remain in town on Tuesday and Thursday nights—if not possible to stay every night—and to have as many patrons and pupils as possible with them. Please remember this.
5. Every teacher is requested to bring a good note book and be prepared for taking, in a systematic manner, outlines and notes of the various lectures and papers.
6. Be on time every day, especially Monday.
7. Arrange your affairs so you can remain on Friday afternoon until all the work is completed.
8. Bring a copy of Gray's Elegy, Hamlet, and Henry VIII with you to the Institute.
9. Institute opens at 8:30 and closes at 4:30.
10. Carefully prepare and bring before the institute that subject in which you must need help, or that item in which you feel that you are most deficient.
11. Remember that the institute is yours. Give it your best thought and effort. Bear in mind that the institute is neither the place nor the time for personalities or trifles.
12. Let every teacher resolve that at this institute he will do, at least, some one thing in a better manner than any one else can do it. Strive to excel in something; make a record for one good thing if no more.
13. Every person holding a certificate to teach in the county, and every one who contemplates applying for a certificate at the August examination, must attend the full session of the institute. See Section 140, Kentucky School Laws.

Pullman Porter Found Dead.

Ed. Walker, col., formerly of this city, was found dead in a Pullman car at Kansas City. He had been in the service of the Pullman Palace Car Company as porter for ten years and had just returned from a long Western run a few hours before he was found dead.

An inquest was held and the coronor pronounced heart disease the cause of death. Walker was about forty years old and left this city for the West about fifteen years ago. The body arrived here this morning and was buried in the Gainesville burying ground this afternoon.

INTERESTING RELIC.

A Rusty Old Sword That Was Used at Quebec.

Carried by an American Officer Who Followed Gen. Wolfe.

Cadiz, Ky., July 19.—(Correspondence.)—As anything that pertains to war seems to be of special interest to the reading public now perhaps it would not be out of the line of general interest to mention an old war relic that I have. It is an old sword that was carried by my great grandfather, Alexander Fraser, in the war between France and England, or what is commonly known as the French and Indian war, and with which he scaled the Heights of Abraham with Gen. Wolfe in that memorable battle of Quebec, which was fought on the 13th of September 1759 between Generals Wolfe and Montcalm.

The blade of the sword is now 30 inches long and is straight. It is ornamented with the picture of a fox engraved on either side near the hilt, the hilt is about 6 inches long, with a common steel guard.

The sword was originally much longer than it is now, and had a very large and elaborately finished steel guard on the hilt which completely protected the hand from any blow of the enemy. But some time prior to the late civil war my father loaned it to a gentleman who was Captain of a company of militia, or home guards as I believe they were then called, and he had it cut off and the present handle put on it. There is no scabbard with it, and the blade, not having been very well protected, is somewhat rusted.

Heretofore it has not been appreciated as highly perhaps as it should have been, but now, since the tocsin of war has again sounded in our land and the heart of every true American is stirred with a feeling of patriotism, the "old blade", which once helped to defend our beloved country against a foreign foe, is very highly prized, and if circumstances would permit, I don't know that I would have any very serious objections to hacking a few Spaniards with it myself.

Yours Respectfully,

C. B. FRASER.

ALL WANT TO GO.

Kentucky Troops Are Sure to Go to the Front.

Chickamauga National Military Park, Ga., July 19.—Speculation is rife throughout Camp Thomas as to what regiments will go with Gen. Brooke to Porto Rico. There is not a regiment in the First corps but is expecting to form a part of the Porto Rican force, and many of them are buoyed by a feeling that they are sure to be included in the order.

In the event there are no changes, the regiments likely to be included are as follows:

First Division—The brigade now at Charleston, consisting of the Second and Third Wisconsin and the Sixteenth Pennsylvania; the Third Illinois, Fourth Pennsylvania, Fourth Ohio, First and Third Kentucky, Fifth Illinois, Thirty-first Michigan, One Hundred and Sixtieth Indiana, First Georgia, Sixth Ohio, One Hundred and Fifty-eighth Indiana, First West Virginia, Second Ohio, First Pennsylvania, Fourteenth Minnesota.

Fine Wheat Yield.

Mr. O. G. Wood, of the Old Bainbridge neighborhood, reports the best yield of wheat, so far heard from, in the county. On twenty-two acres of ground the general average was 24½ bushels per acre. Of this six acres of tobacco land produced 245 bushels. Mr. Wood raises what is known as the "Harvest King" variety of wheat. He has already had numerous applications from his neighbors for seed wheat and he will probably dispose of his surplus in this manner.

Gamble-Brasher.

Mr. Volney Gamble and Miss Linnie E. Brasher will be married to-morrow evening at 3 o'clock, at the bride's home near Crofton, Rev. G. W. Davis will officiate.

ELEGANT RECEPTION.

Such Was the Entertainment at Mrs. Warfield's

Last Night, in Honor of Her Charming Young Lady Visitors.

The reception at Mrs. A. G. Warfield's last night was a very brilliant and successful affair throughout. It was given in honor of Misses Susie Warfield, Laura West and Martha Bowling, all of Clarksville. More than one hundred invitations were issued. These young ladies, charming representatives of the beauty of our sister city, assisted Mrs. Warfield in doing the honors. The handsome parlors were beautifully decorated with palms, ferns and flowers, American beauty roses being conspicuous among the floral decorations.

Music was rendered during the evening by Ward's string band.

Little Misses Mary Anderson and Dora Warfield presided at the frappe boards, in white organdies.

The young ladies in whose honor the reception was given were attired in beautiful white, blue and yellow organdies, with diamond ornaments.

The young gentlemen present were in full dress evening suits.

Misses Ritchie Burnett and Hattie Long also assisted in receiving.

The refreshments were elegant, consisting of ices, cakes and other delicious edibles. The evening was greatly enjoyed by all who were so fortunate as to be present, as no lady in the city understands better the art of entertaining than the popular hostess.

Satisfactory Sales.

The sales of tobacco to-day were rather larger than those of the same day last week. Offerings amounted to about one hundred hogheads and there were a very few rejections. Only common leaf and lugs were sold and prices were good for these grades. The sales to-morrow will be much larger, probably reaching four hundred hogheads. There is an active demand for fine goods, and whenever such grades make their appearance upon the market, high prices are realized.
